MATHEW UNWIN, Printer and Book-binder, over-againſt the ANGEL Inn, in LEICESTER.

BINDS Books in the neateſt manner, either in Morocco, Turky, Calves-Leather, or cheap Bindings, by a compleat Workman from LONDON; and performs Printing of Books, Bills, Certificates, Receipts, &c, very neat, at reaſonable Rates.

N. B. The ſaid M. Unwin wou'd take an Apprentice, if he could meet with a ſober induſtrious Youth, and one that would be willing to buy the Stock and Materials when out of his time,

Or he will ſell to any young Bookſeller, or Printer, all his Stock of Books, Stationary Ware, and Printing Materials, (immediately or any time before next Spring) either for ready Money, or Annuity for his Life; whoſe ill State of Health retards the Pleaſure of Buſineſs; and he having no proper Aſſiſtant, prevents him from going to drink the Waters, or uſing ſuch Methods as may conduce to his Recovery.

The Value will be about 200 l. all which, and more, has been gain'd ſince 1739, he having paid all his Debts.

Note. He has a very handſome Houſe and Shop, ſituate in the moſt public Street, out of the Liberty of the Freedom of the Town, and Buſineſs encreaſes daily.

 No Letters will be anſwer'd, on this Affair, unleſs Poſt-paid.
